

This fortnightly report for the BBC complaints service¹ shows for the periods covered:

- the number of complaints about programmes and those which received more than 100² at Stage 1 (Audience Services);
- findings of subsequent investigations made at Stage 2 (by the Executive Complaints Unit)³;
- the percentage of all complaints dealt with within the target periods for each stage.

NB: Figures include, but are not limited to, editorial complaints, and are not comparable with complaint figures published by Ofcom about other broadcasters (which are calculated on a different basis). The number of complaints received is not an indication of how serious an issue is.

Between 19 February - 4 March 2018, BBC Audience Services (Stage 1) received a total of 5,868 complaints about programmes. 8,848 complaints in total were received at Stage 1.

No programme in the period received more than 100 complaints.

97% of all complaints dealt with between 19 February - 4 March 2018 received an initial response within the Stage 1 target period of 10 working days.

Recent BBC public responses to significant complaints at Stage 1 are published at: <http://www.bbc.co.uk/complaints/complaint/>

The Executive Complaints Unit made 11 findings at Stage 2 between 19 February - 4 March 2018. Further information on complaints which were upheld or resolved after investigation by the ECU can be found here: <http://www.bbc.co.uk/complaints/comp-reports/ecu/>
